

...on

SEASON XIII FEATURED ARTISTS

The Caverns Sessions (formerly known as Bluegrass Underground)—now in its 13th season—is the 2nd longest-running music concert series on television, an artful curation of established and emerging artists from Americana, R&B, Jam Band, Neo-Folk, Roots Rock, Soul and Bluegrass... Here is music from the heart of the American experience. But with all this diversity in talent, The Caverns' unique beauty and the one-of-a-kind ambiance remain the co-star of 'the greatest show under earth!'

SEASON XIII
FEATURED ARTISTS ON

ELIZABETH COOK

Originally from Wildwood, Florida, Elizabeth Cook is a much-lauded Nashville artist with a sharp, surprising style. Beyond her singing/writing talents that have garnered multiple Americana Award nominations, Elizabeth has built an enormous fan base as a SiriusXM Outlaw Country DJ, a Grand Ole Opry regular, and as the beloved Tammy on Adult Swim's Squidbillies.

YOLA

Yola is a critically acclaimed artist & actor and six-time GRAMMY nominee. NPR hailed her latest album, Stand for Myself, as the "best Soul record of the past 20 years." Yola has a stack of Americana nominations and her acting debut as Sister Rosetta Tharpe in "ELVIS" earned her an NAACP Image Award nomination. In 2024 she is scheduled to release highly anticipated new music.

THE TEXAS GENTLEMEN

A "band of ringers" based in Dallas and Austin, The Texas Gentlemen are a versatile collective known for genre-blending skills, from Pop-Soul to Country Funk. They've served as a backing band for many A-Listers (G. Strait, K Kristofferson, etc.) and are regularly compared to such legendary groups as Los Angeles' Wrecking Crew and the Muscle Shoals Swampers.

SEASON XII
FEATURED ARTISTS ON

EVAN HONER

Originally from Surprise, Arizona, West Coast troubador Evan Honer is influenced by esteemed artists like Jason Isbell, Tyler Childers, and Colter Wall. From that heady start point, Honer has become a prolific songwriter, masterfully crafting captivating, stripped down songs with clever lyrics that have won over modern Outlaw Country, Indie-Folk, and Pop fans across the country. Honer's catalogue is growing fast, and his fan base even faster.

The DAN TYMINSKI BAND

With a 30+ year career and 14 GRAMMYS, Tyminski is legendary for his iconic voice in the film O Brother, Where Art Thou? Beyond a longtime affiliation with Alison Krauss, he has contributed to projects by Dolly Parton, Willie Nelson, and many more. He is a consummate player; in his honor Martin Guitar has even produced the Martin D-28 Dan Tyminski Custom Edition.

49 WINCHESTER

Hailing from Virginia, 49 Winchester formed when its members were teenagers. Hundreds of shows and thousands of miles onward, the rapidly-rising band's latest album, Fortune Favors the Bold, reflects their hard-earned, roots rocking ethos. Rolling Stone magazine called 49 Winchester, "The buzziest of buzz bands.... Everyone's favorite new group." Not bad...!

THE CAVERNS SESSIONS

SEASON XII
FEATURED ARTISTS ON

LINDSAY LOU

Celebrated singer-songwriter Lindsay Lou masterfully combines progressive Americana and Folk with her Bluegrass roots. In a career marked by personal growth & revelations tempered by profound loss, Lou's journey is showcased on her latest album, Queen of Time. Here is a powerful woman who shares with the world a vibrant, mystical sense of self and whose vocals lift up as a powerful companion to her songs of self-discovery and resilience.

CLAY STREET UNIT

Formed in Denver, Colorado, Clay Street Unit infuses southern Country, Folk, and Appalachian Bluegrass into their high energy offerings of Americana traditions. With their fresh, unique, and evolving, sound, CSU hooks audiences coast to coast from the first listen.

OZOMATLI

With an eclectic blend of urban-Latino, rap, jazz, rock and myriad global influences, Ozomatli's musical artistry mirrors the cultural tapestry of their hometown: Los Angeles. With 25+ years performing, they've earned two Grammy Awards, a Latin Grammy, and the honored title of U.S. Cultural Ambassadors. Energy, playfulness and rock solid musicianship mark every Ozomatli performance.

THE CAVERNS SESSIONS

SEASON XII
FEATURED ARTISTS ON

SHANE SMOTH & THE SAINTS

Famous in part for multiple appearances on the hit show, "Yellowstone," Shane Smith's music journey began in Austin, TX, where he formed The Saints, a group known for their four-part harmonies. The band's high-energy live shows are electric and eclectic and not to be forgotten.

BIG RICHARD

Colorado's neo-acoustic, all-women quartet, Big Richard, is impressive with virtuosity, humor, harmonies, and a broad repertoire. By reinventing traditional tunes combined with their own original storytelling, they're making "y'all-ternative" waves with audiences across the country.

ALVIN YOUNGBLOOD HART'S MUSCLE THEORY

Hailed as a "musician's musician," Hart's artistry has drawn praise from writing legends the likes of Bob Dylan, as well as guitar virtuosos Eric Clapton, Gary Moore and Mick Taylor. Hart's nomadic upbringing influences his eclectic musical performances as he delights in challenging so-called Blues purists.

Welcoming visitors from all 50 United States, Europe, and as far away as Thailand and Dubai, The Caverns is a bucket list pilgrimage venue for the casual listener and music aficionado alike.

Millions of fans each season tune in to this 16-time EMMY Award-winning PBS series. The Caverns sessions celebrate the marriage of two things for which America can be most proud: the beauty of her amazing natural wonders and a uniquely profound national musical heritage.

Contact:
Todd Squared Productions

Todd Mayo
M: 615-587-5000
josephthoddmayo@gmail.com

Todd Jarrell
M: 931-261-6735
jarrell.todd@gmail.com